

TOBA

Oregon Thoroughbred Owners & Breeders Association, Inc.

The OTOBA is a non-profit corporation committed to serving the interests of Oregon's breeding and racing industries. Our mission is to increase public interest through promotion and advancement of Oregon Thoroughbreds. Our goal is to strengthen the Oregon Thoroughbred industry, in cooperation with other horsemen's organizations, both in breeding and racing by generating innovative ideas and incentive programs for the betterment of all participating.

Why Join the OTOBA?

As a member of the OTOBA you will receive issues of the combined Oregon Horse/Washington Thoroughbred magazine and newsletters including the December Stallion Register issue. You will have the right to vote for representatives to serve on the OTOBA Board of Directors, and to vote for the horses selected as Oregon Champions of the previous year for our Annual Awards Banquet. Only horses bred or owned by OTOBA members are considered for championship honors.

You will be informed of upcoming events and industry related educational seminars. Have the opportunity to nominate your foals to the Oregon-bred restricted stakes races, and participate without administrative fee deductions, to the incentive programs that reward owners and breeders of Oregon-breds. The owners' bonus for the 2009-10 Portland Meadows meet was over 30% of money earned, the breeder's award 10% of money earned on wins. Oregon-breds earned $849,744 at Portland Meadows!

We need active members with input and ideas to help us in our efforts to strengthen the Thoroughbred industry in Oregon.
